

The Company still need to discuss the necessity of establishing a Corporate Governance Committee, considering that the duties attributed to Corporate Governance Committee can be properly discharged by the Board. Currently, the duties and functions of Corporate Governance Committee are being undertaken successfully by the Corporation's Board as a whole.